a. Mission

The establishment of clandestine support facilities in the Latvian SSR for the purpose of contacting, organizing and developing agent and underground facilities for the performance of the OPC/OSO missions in the USSR.

b. Accomplishments

The three Latvian agents were dispatched to the target area.

The newspaper Latvya has been advised through RFE of the decision to discontinue support of that publication. However, a decision will be forthcoming shortly as to whether or not to resume support of the paper through another channel, coincidental with the exertion of greater control on our part.
